

Company Policy

Contribution to society through personal harmony and creativity

Management Principles

- 1 To serve society through the development of business activities that focus on the creation of the best product quality
- 2 To develop technology that serves our customers' needs and utilizes the creativity of all employees
- 3 To enhance personal character and harmony between people by human resource development and promoting mutual respect

CSR Management (Socially Responsible Management)

